SERIES STUFF

The Cougars and Jaguars have met 18 previous times in men's basketball, all when both schools were NCAA Division II members. The Cougars hold a 16-2 edge in the all-time series and are 9-0 at home in the series.

FRESHMAN HONORS

Ellis earned Freshman of the Week honors in the OVC Monday. Ellis scored a career-high 16 points against SIU Carbondale. He added career highs with six rebounds and six assists.

SOMEWHERE OVER THE RAINBOW

SIUE opened the season in Hawaii and while the visit to the Rainbow Classic was the first for SIUE, it wasn't for SIUE Head Coach Jon Harris. He participated in the 1998 Rainbow Classic while a freshman at Marquette.

TOURNEY TIME

The Rainbow Classic was SIUE's fifth in-season tournament since moving to NCAA Division I in 2008 and first since taking part in the Cancun Challenge in November 2011. SIUE was part of the inaugural Charleston (South Carolina) Classic in 2008, where the Cougars earned the program's first Division I win (83-72 over Western Michigan). SIUE won the Drake Hy-Vee Classic in 2009 and the IBN Las Vegas Invitational in 2010.

NEWCOMERS APLENTY

Harris added seven newcomers to a team which lost two starters from last season. Newcomers include freshmen Justin Benton, Christian Ellis, Brandon Jackson and Kevion Stewart, sophomores D'Quan Applewhite and Julian Torres as well as junior Luka Radovic. Torres transferred from UIC and must sit out the season due to Division I transfer rules. Stewart will redshirt the season after suffering a knee injury last season.

NOT EXACTLY NEWCOMERS

Tre Harris and Glenn Pierre, Jr. sat out last season after transferring to SIUE. Harris came to SIUE from Kansas State where he scored 3.8 points per game as a freshman. Pierre transferred from College of Charleston where he scored 1.2 points per game as a sophomore. He made his season debut playing 11 minutes at Arkansas State.

DOUBLING DOWN

Keenan Simmons (11 points, 14 rebounds) and Harris (10/10) recorded double-doubles against Florida Atlantic. It was the first time SIUE had two players collect double-doubles in the same game since the 2011-12 season.

LIVING UP TO HIS NAME

"Tre" appears to be an appropriate nickname for Harris, who is leading SIUE with 15 three-pointers. He is shooting .556 from beyond the arc and leads the team at 15.4 points a game.

FAMILY AFFAIR

Harris is the nephew of Head Coach Jon Harris. That's not the only family connection. Tre's mom, LeAnn (Bryan) Harris, played basketball at SIUE from 1991-1994 and is an Athletics Hall of Famer.

MAN IN THE MIDDLE

Simmons has been SIUE's de facto center so far this season. Simmons twice established new career highs in rebounds with 13 against Hawai'i and 14 against Florida Atlantic. He is third in the OVC in rebounding and second in blocks.

RECORD SETTER

Burak Eslik led the team in scoring at 14.0 points per game last season. He set an SIUE Division I record with 40 points against Morehead State. It was the most points last season by an OVC player. Eslik was 12 for 22 from the field. He hit his first seven three-pointers.

STARTING FIVE

Harris has used the same starting lineup for all five regular season games and the exhibition game this season. Last season the Cougars' head coach used only three different lineups while three players started every game.

THREE FOR THE E

SIUE is second in the OVC with a .403 three-point percentage as a team. The Cougars have been selective though. They are last in the league with just 5.0 three-pointers made per game.

CRASHING THE BOARDS

SIUE finished fifth in the OVC with an average of 35.7 rebounds a game last season. The Cougars improved their rebounding by nearly a full rebound per game from the previous season. SIUE grabbed 48 rebounds against Eastern Illinois and Campbell, setting the school record for rebounds against a Division I opponent.

DEFENDING THE BOARDS

SIUE is tied for sixth in the OVC in rebounding defense. The Cougars are allowing 35.0 rebounds per game and are tied with Belmont.

SIUE Men's Basketball

Head Coach Jon Harris

Edwardsville native Jon Harris was introduced as men's basketball head coach April 6, 2015. He is the eighth head coach in program history.

In his first year, Harris led the Cougars to the most Division I nonconference wins with three. The Cougars picked up victories over Arkansas State, SIU Carbondale and Portland State. The win at SIU Carbondale was SIUE's first over SIUC in eight tries all-time. The Cougars also earned a win at Eastern Illinois, marking the first road win against the Panthers. Three total road wins tied for the most since moving to Division I. SIUE also won at Southeast Missouri.

During the 2015-16 season, SIUE led the Ohio Valley Conference in blocks averaging 4.0 blocks per game. SIUE was seventh in the OVC in free throw percentage, finishing the year at .704, which was up from .675 the season before. The Cougars also were improved on the glass averaging 35.7 rebounds per game which was up more than a rebound per game from the previous season.

The Cougars head coach oversaw the development of two first-year SIUE players. Junior Burak Eslik came to SIUE after spending two seasons at Lewis and Clark Community College. Eslik led the team in scoring and tied for 15th overall in the OVC at 14.0 points per game. He established an SIUE Division I record when he scored 40 points in a game against Morehead State. It was the highest single-game total in the OVC last season. Eslik also established a new school record with 131 made free throws.

Freshman Carlos Anderson also excelled in his first season at SIUE. He was second on the team in scoring, averaging 10.3 points a game. He also was the second-leading scorer among freshman in the OVC. Anderson added 4.7 rebounds per game, which was second on the team.

Harris spent seven seasons on Cuonzo Martin's staff, first at Missouri State for three seasons and then three seasons at Tennessee. He joined Martin at Cal, where he spent one season before getting the SIUE head coaching position. The Bears finished the 2014-15 season with an 18-15 record.

In three seasons at Tennessee, Harris oversaw a successful frontcourt. Jarnell Stokes and Jeronne Maymon earned All-SEC honors. UT ranked near the top of the SEC in defensive rebounding and rebounding margin under Harris.

In three seasons on staff at Missouri State, the Bears averaged more than 20 victories and captured the program's first-ever Missouri Valley Conference regular season championship. MSU improved from 11 wins in the 2008-09 campaign to a 24-12 record and the Collegelinsider.com postseason tournament title in 2009-10.

Harris, who played four seasons at Marquette, including three for Head Coach Tom Crean, served on the staff at his alma mater for the 2002-03 season. The Golden Eagles finished 27-6 and reached the Final Four in his one season. After Marquette, Harris was on staff for a UW-Green Bay team that finished among the top four in the Horizon League during each of his five seasons.

As a player, Harris was one of the best rebounders in Conference USA history, finishing with 494 career rebounds. During his senior season (2001-02), Harris and teammate Dwyane Wade led the Golden Eagles to a 26-7 overall record, an NCAA Tournament berth, and a No. 9 ranking in the final Associated Press national poll.

Harris was a standout for Head Coach Mike Waldo at Edwardsville High School where he scored 1,269 points during his career. He was the 1998 St. Louis Post Dispatch Player of the Year and an Associated Press All-State selection in Illinois. He also was a USA Today Honorable Mention All-America pick.

Harris graduated from Marquette in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in psychology. He and his wife Heidi, an All-Conference player for Marquette from 1998-2001, have two daughters (Hailey and Leah) and a son (Jaxson).
