ALEX AND IAN HONORED

IUPUI senior forward Alex Young has been named First Team All-Summit League while sophomore teammate Ian Chiles was voted to the league’s All-Newcomer Team, as announced inside Sioux Falls Arena on Thursday afternoon. Oral Roberts’ senior swingman Dominique Morrison was chosen the league’s Player of the Year while ORU head coach Scott Sutton was picked Coach of the Year.

WIU senior guard Ceola Clark III was voted Defensive Player of the Year and North Dakota State freshman guard Lawrence Alexander was pegged Newcomer of the Year. ORU sophomore forward Steven Roundtree rounded out the major award winners by being voted Sixth Man of the Year.

For Young, it continued to add to his impressive collegiate resume as he was voted First Team All-Summit for the third straight year. He becomes the first-ever IUPUI player to earn three first team awards as he and current NBAer George Hill are the only two in school history to have been voted twice.

The 6-foot-6 lefty closed the regular season ranked 11th in the nation in scoring average at 20.7 points per game, while also leading the Jaguars in rebounding (5.9 rpg), steals (49), blocked shots (31), threes made (58) and free throws made (153). He scored a career-high 43 points in the Jaguars’ Dec. 1 win over Western Kentucky, setting a new IUPUI Division I record in the process.

A native of Indianapolis, Young has served as the nation’s active career scoring leader throughout the 2011-12 campaign and enters the postseason with 2,276 career points. He also continues to lead the country in double-digit scoring games, having reached the mark 110 times in 130 career games. He currently ranks fifth in Summit League history and third on IUPUI’s all-time scoring list, while also ranking among IUPU’s top 10 all-time in rebounding, steals, field goals made, free throws made and threes made. In the regular season finale, he became just the fourth player in school history to connect on at least 200 career treys.

Young was joined on the first team by Taylor Braun (NDSU), Frank Gaines (IPFW), Reggie Hamilton (Oakland), Morrison and Nate Wolters (South Dakota State).

Chiles, a 6-foot-1 guard from Louisville, Ky., moved into IUPUI’s starting lineup early during the 2011-12 season and made an immediate impact. Chiles finished the regular season ranked third on the team in scoring (10.4 ppg) while leading the squad in three-point percentage at 43.0 percent (34-of-79). The sophomore scored in double-figures 17 times including a career-high 19-point effort in IUPUI’s Dec. 23 win over Valparaiso at Bankers Life Fieldhouse. Chiles was one of just four newcomers in The Summit League to average double-digits in league play, upping his scoring output to better than 11 points per game in conference.

Chiles also ranked second on the squad in steals (35) and blocked shots (19) and was third on the squad in threes made (34) and assists (50). He becomes IUPUI’s 12th player to earn All-Newcomer honors, six of which have been junior college transfers. Chiles was joined on the All-Newcomer Team by Alexander, Obi Emegano and Terell Parks (Western Illinois) and Corey Petros (Oakland).

SCORING STREAKS

Coming into tonight’s game, senior Alex Young has scored in double-digits 21 straight times dating back to the Dec. 7 game at Louisville.

LAST 7

The past seven games, Alex Young is averaging 22.1 points per game and shooting 50.9 (54-of-106) percent from the floor. The 6-foot-6 lefty is hitting 50 percent (16-of-32) from three, including having hit at least two treys in five of those seven outings.

200 TREYS

Senior Alex Young became just the fourth in school history to hit 200 career threes last Saturday night at SDSU. Brandon Cole tops the list with 238 made threes, followed by Rodney Thomas (215) and Carlos Knox (208).

11TH NATIONALLY

Senior Alex Young is currently 11th in the country in scoring average at 20.7 points per game. Overall, The Summit League boasts five of the nation’s top 14 in scoring with that quintet consisting of Reggie Hamilton (OU), Nate Wolters (SDSU), Dominique Morrison (ORU), Frank Gaines (IPFW) and Young.

HIT THE ROAD, JAGS

Beginning on Jan. 19, IUPUI will finish the regular season with eight of their final 11 contests on the road including the Feb. 18 Sears Bracket Buster contest at Nicholls State. IUPUI’s only remaining home is the Feb. 15 meeting with South Dakota on Senior Night.

ROAD STRONG

After starting the year 0-11 on the road, IUPUI had now ripped off three straight road wins (at Southern Utah, Nicholls State and North Dakota State) before last Saturday’s loss at South Dakota State.

CLOSE CALLS

IUPUI has played 11 games decided by five points or less this season, going just 3-8 in those outcomes. However, if you flip just three of those games, the Jaguars are above .500 both overall and in Summit League play. Three Summit League contests immediately come to mind in regards to buzzer beater losses:

- SDSU 97, IUPUI 93 - ot (12/1/11); Jags led by 2 with :31 left in regulation, miss front-end of 1-and-1; lose in OT
- WIU 57, IUPUI 55 (1/28/12); WIU freshman Remy Roberts-Burnett his 1st career 3 as time expires
-ORU 76, IUPUI 74 (2/9/12); ORU senior Rod Pearson hits runner as time expires in OT to break 74 all tie.
To be fair, IUPUI also won a 66-63 contest over IPFW on Feb. 4 thanks to some Stephen Thomas heroics, capped by a three with 24 seconds to play to cap a 21-8 run to end the game.

STARTER STREAKS

Did you know, sophomore Ian Chiles has the team’s longest streak of starts, having started 27 straight times. The trio of Alex Young, Stephen Thomas and Lyonell Gaines have started 20 straight dating back to the Louisville game. Head coach Todd Howard has used the same starting lineup 13 straight times since Siakam’s reinsertion.

FRESH STARTS

Freshman Lyonell Gaines’ 26 starts this year are the most by an IUPUI freshman during the program’s Division I era. Both Alex Young and George Hill started 21 times in their rookie campaigns.

SHOCK-UM

Since returning to the starting lineup 13 games ago, senior big man Christian Siakam is averaging 11.2 points and 6.8 rebounds per game and shooting 62.6 percent (67-of-107) from the floor. In addition, the Cameroon-native has also done a good job of staying out of foul trouble, being whistled just 39 times in the past 13 games while averaging 30 minutes per.

SEAN’S FRESH

Junior sharpshooter Sean Esposito had a long hiatus between baskets recently, but came up huge in the Feb. 1 79-75 win over Oakland. After not hitting a field goal since the Dec. 7 loss at Oakland, Esposito matched his career-high with 18 points (5-9 FG, 4-7 3FG) in 25 minutes off the bench. During that 13 game gap between makes, Esposito had seven DNP’s including missing three games to an injury suffered in practice.

1-0 IN BRACKETBUSTERS

IUPUI had a profitable first run in the Sears BracketBuster event, claiming an 84-80 win at Nicholls State last Saturday. NSU will return the game to Indy next year while the Jaguars will also host a game in mid-February.

6 UP, 6 DOWN

For the first time since 1996-97, IUPUI has had both a six-game winning streak and six-game losing streak in the same season. That was the same season in which IUPUI HOFer Carlos Knox suffered a season-ending injury in the first game and was later granted a hardship waiver.

STREAK NO MO’
IUPUI seven-game losing streak was the program’s longest since a nine-game losing skid from Jan. 6-Feb. 3, 2000. That team finished the year 7-21 overall and 4-12 in the Mid-Continent Conference.

FREE MONEY
IUPUI is currently 3rd nationally in free throw shooting, hitting 77.4 percent from the line as a team (Weber State leads the country at 81.0 percent). Senior Stephen Thomas climbed as high as No. 2 in the country in the category earlier this season.

NEW FREE THROW RECORDS
As a team and individually, IUPUI has set a slew of free throw shooting records this season and are currently on pace to challenge the school record for single-season free throw percentage (77.6 percent in 2007-08). Here are some of the other free throw records established this season:
– Senior guard Stephen Thomas hit 31 straight free throws from Dec. 10-30
– Thomas hit a perfect 14-of-14 against Valpo on Dec. 23, tying the IUPUI single-game mark – Against Valpo (Dec. 23), IUPUI hit 41-of-48 (85.4 percent), setting a new school record for makes in a game (41) and posting the second-highest total of attempts (48) in the Division I era. The previous high water mark for free throws made was 35 at Lipscomb on Dec. 1, 2003, coming in a school record 51 attempts.
– As a team, IUPUI hit 19-of-19 at South Dakota on Jan. 19, bettering the previous single-game percentage mark of 95 percent (19-of-20) at Morehead State on Dec. 28, 2002

WEEKLY HONORS FOR ALEX
Senior Alex Young collected a pair of weekly honors on Dec. 26 after leading the Jaguars to back-to-back wins over Ball State and Valparaiso. The 6-foot-6 swingman was named The Summit League Player of the Week for the second time in three weeks and fourth time in his career and was later tabbed the Lou Henson Award Mid-Major Player of the Week by CollegeInsider.com. Young posted 24.5 points, 6.0 rebounds and 3.5 assists in the two wins, while also blocking four shots and collecting four steals. He led IUPUI in scoring in both games on the Indiana Pacers’ home court.

ABOUT THE EARLIER HOMESTAND
IUPUI six-game homestand (Dec. 10-Jan. 3) earlier this season was the program’s longest streak in the Division I era. It was IUPUI’s longest stretch since hosting eight straight home games from Dec. 27, 1997-Jan. 19, 1998. That season, head coach Ron Hunter’s squad went 8-0 on that home-stand, winning by an average margin of 29.1 points per game, largely behind Hall of Famer Carlos Knox. Knox averaged 37.3 points per game during the eight-game stretch which included a school record 51-point outburst against Oklahoma Panhandle State (Jan. 5, 1998) and three other games of 40 points or better. The eighth and final game of the home stretch was an 82-58 win over West Virginia State at Market Square Arena as part of the IUPUI Diversity Classic.

times until he was held to just five points (in 13 minutes) at Milwaukee on Nov. 18. Young was hit with four first half fouls and never got in a rhythm in the loss. The five points were his fewest since Feb. 21 of his freshman season. Young had another streak snapped on Dec. 7 at No. 5/4 Louisville when he wasn’t in the starting lineup for the first time in 80 games, dating back to his freshman year.

GOOD START
The Todd Howard-era got off to a good start on Nov. 7 as the Jaguars ripped Anderson, 101-68. In doing so, Howard joined Mel Garland and Kirby Overman as the only IUPUI coaches to win their first career games on the sidelines. Howard spent the last 16 years on Hunter’s staff including the last 10 as Associate Head Coach and the recruiting coordinator. Howard has had two opportunities to lead the Jaguars in the past though, including taking over the reins with 11:41 left in a loss to Oakland on Feb. 21, 2009 after Hunter was ejected. Howard also commanded the Jaguars in a 109-82 pasting of Indiana Tech on Nov. 28, 2001 as Hunter missed the game due to a one-game suspension.

JAGS IN THE PROS
While NBAer George Hill certainly headlines the group, there’s no shortage of Jaguars currently playing basketball professionally. Hill, who was traded to the Indiana Pacers on the night of the NBA Draft last season and played with the Texas Fuel of the ABA when the NBA players were locked out. Here’s a look at other former Jags in the professional ranks and their most recent stop(s):
David Barlow - Indianapolis Drive (ABA)
James Booyer - Gary Splash (IBA) / St. Louis Phoenix (PBL)
Odell Bradley - Southeast Texas Mavericks (ABA)
Robert Glenn - Soles de Mexicali (Mexico-LNBP)
Leroy Nobles - Pieno Zvaigzdes (Lithuania-LKL)
Billy Pettiford - Indiana Diesels (PBL)
Angelo Smith - Indianapolis Drive (ABA)

IUPUI ON WNDE
This marks the first year IUPUI basketball games can be heard in Indianapolis on sports radio WNDE 1260 AM with Scott McCauley (play-by-play) on the call. As part of the agreement, IUPUI games can also be heard on WNDE.com or through the iHeartRadio app for mobile users.

JAGS INK THREE IN EARLY SIGNING PERIOD
IUPUI head coach Todd Howard got three to sign on the dotted line on Wednesday (Nov. 9) to become Jaguars beginning next season. The IUPUI signing class consisted of 6-foot-2, 190-pound lefthanded point guard Cortell Busby (Chester, S.C./Fishburne [Va.] Military School), 6-foot-6, 225-pound forward Elijah Ray (Gary, Ind./Bowman Academy) and 6-foot-4, 185-pound sharp-shooter Linwood Ross, Jr. (Miramar, Fla./Westminister Academy). Busby is one of 10 Division I signees on a nationally ranked Fishburne Military School squad, while Ray helped Bowman Academy to an IHSAA Class A state title his sophomore year. Ross ranked second in Broward County in scoring a year ago, netting 21.3 points per game at WA. All three will be true freshmen beginning next season.

Todd Howard took over as the seventh head coach in the history of the IUPUI Men's Basketball Program on April 21, 2011. He is entering his 17th season on the Jaguars sidelines, serving the last 10 years as the Associate Head Coach to longtime leader Ron Hunter. He was an assistant on Hunter's staff for six years prior to that.

While under Hunter, he surpassed Greg Mingus as the longest tenured assistant/associate coach in the program's history and was also the longest tenured assistant/associate coach in The Summit League. Before being promoted to the head spot, he was recognized by numerous publications, including Hoop Scoop and Fox Sports, among the top assistant/associate coaches in the nation among mid-majors.

Howard has been instrumental in the program's successes - on the court, in the classroom, on the recruiting trail and within the community. The Jaguars won a school record 26 games during the 2007-08 season and nearly equaled that number with 25 wins in 2009-10. In 2010, IUPUI also claimed its first-ever postseason victory at the NCAA Division I level, bettering Hofstra in the opening round of the College Basketball Invitational (CBI) in Hempstead, N.Y. IUPUI later hosted its first-ever Division I postseason game before falling to Princeton in a double overtime thriller.

Both Robert Glenn and Alex Young were both pegged First Team All-Summit and Mid-Major All-Americans by assorted publications.

The 2008 calendar year was a banner campaign for Howard as he traveled to Peru as part of the program's work with Samaritan's Feet to deliver shoes to those less fortunate. That was after he had coached an Athletes in Action team to an 8-1 record during a 10-day tour of East Asia. Later that same offseason, reigning Summit League Player of the Year George Hill was selected by the San Antonio Spurs in the first round of the NBA Draft. He became the first early entrant to be chosen in Summit League history and was just the second-ever first rounder in the league's near 30 year history.

Collectively, IUPUI was coming off its most successful season in program history, having won the aforementioned 26 games behind Hill and fellow guards Gary Patterson and Austin Montgomery. In addition, the Jaguars won a school record 15 Summit League games and were a perfect 15-0 on their home floor.

Since being elevated to the associate post, Howard has been instrumental in IUPUI's success in the conference and on a national level. In six of the past 10 years, IUPUI has either played for or captured a league title. Plus, IUPUI has produced two league Players of the Year, two Newcomers of the Year, a Sixth Man of the Year and a Defensive Player of the Year.

Howard's work with the Jaguars' guards has been evidenced by the program being ranked among the nation's leaders in fewest turnovers per game the past five seasons. In 2008, the Jaguars were the only team in the country to rank among the top five in field goal, free throw and three-point shooting percentages, leading the nation in the three-point shooting. In 2010, the Jaguars ranked second to only Syracuse in field goal shooting and led The Summit in field goal and three-point percentage and steals. In 2011, IUPUI led The Summit and ranked top five nationally in free throw shooting.

In his role as recruiting coordinator, Howard is always highly visible on the recruiting trail, having strung together numerous marquee classes for the Jags. Most recently, he scoured his home state of Kentucky for prep standouts Marcellus Barksdale, Lyonell Gaines and Jordan Shanklin. Gaines later earned a spot on the prestigious Kentucky All-Star Team, becoming IUPUI's second selection in three years. In 2007 IUPUI inked Indiana All-Stars Larry Stone and Alex Young and Kentucky All-Star Aaron Morris. The class of John Ashworth and Adrian Moss, swingman Leroy Nobles and highly touted big man Christian Siakam was rated tops in The Summit by noted insider Clark Francis, editor of The Hoop Scoop. IUPUI's class ranked No. 93 in the nation with the spring signings of Ashworth, Moss and Siakam.

He helped land Ben Davis standout point guard Greg Rice, keeping the trend going of landing top-notch talent from the city of Indianapolis. In 2010, he returned to his Louisville roots to bring talented forward Donovan Gibbs to the IUPUI program, along with in-state standouts P.J. Hubert and Mitchell Patton.

Head Coach | First Season

In 2004, Howard began to further earn acclaim on both the camp and recruiting scene. He spent a week as a clinician at the prestigious Pete Newell Big Man Camp in Hawaii, while also helping secure one of IUPUI's most prolific recruiting classes in recent memory.

In the early signing period, Howard helped ink Indianapolis high school products George Hill (Broad Ripple) and Craig Swoope (Carmel). Over the summer during the late signing period, Howard helped land a pair of junior college standouts in Michal Vavrek (Joliet JC) and Maushae Byles (Kennedy-King CC). Prior to that, Howard had been equally successful in landing in-state talent including 2002 Marion County Player of the Year Brandon Cole and 2003 Indiana All-Star David Barlow.

Hill later became IUPUI's second Indiana All-Star, while Vavrek was the second IUPUI recruit to receive All-America mention from the NJCAA. In all, IUPUI has signed seven former Indiana All-Stars since Howard's promotion to Associate Head Coach, after signing just one in the program's history previously.

Howard also played a vital role in landing a pair of Division I transfers for the third time in program history. Former Indiana All-Stars Gary Patterson and Austin Montgomery were both named to the league's All-Newcomer Team after sitting the previous season. Before that, former Indiana All-Star Brandon Cameron and Lawrence North's Angelo Smith made their mark on the Jags lineup. In 2002-03, the addition's of Wright State's Marcus May and Ball State's Josh Murray in 2002 helped propel the Jags to its most memorable year in program history. That year, Howard was a big part in IUPUI bringing home the Mid-Con Championship and making it's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance. Under his guidance, the Jaguars posted a 20-14 overall record and a 10-4 mark in conference play.

In 13 seasons in The Summit League (formerly Mid-Continent Conference), Howard has seen 11 players (Don Carlisle, Sylvester Allen, Antoine Lewis, Odell Bradley, Josh Murray, Akeem Clark, George Hill, Austin Montgomery, Gary Patterson, Robert Glenn and Stephen Thomas) recognized on the All-Newcomer Team in the coaches/media polls. In 2005-06, Montgomery became IUPUI's first-ever Mid-Con Newcomer of the Year in the program's history and Glenn matched the award in 2009.

In 2001-02, Howard's first year as Associate Head Coach, the Jaguars showed promise on the mid-major level as they turned in a 15-15 mark and clawed their way to the Mid-Con Tournament Championship game. The recruiting class around which that team was built, featured six talented JUCO players and 2002 Howard County Player of the Year Blair Crawford.

"Todd certainly has the pedigree, knowledge and work ethic to succeed in this profession," Francis said. "His results at IUPUI have led the Jaguars to unprecedented success. His recruiting prowess has brought quality, impact student-athletes to Indianapolis."

A native of Louisville, Ky., Howard played collegiately at the University of Louisville where he labels his experience in playing for Hall of Fame Coach Denny Crum as one that enabled him to "play for the best, with the best and against the best." While reaching the NCAA Tournament three times, the Cardinals also captured two Metro Conference titles.

Upon completion of his playing career, Howard served as a student assistant under Crum for the 1993-94 season. The Cardinals enjoyed a return trip to the NCAA Sweet 16 that season and boasted a roster that included five future NBA players.

While at IUPUI, more than 20 former Jaguars recruited by Howard have gone on to professional careers, led by George Hill's being drafted and Carlos Knox, Odell Bradley and Matt Crenshaw's stints overseas. Former IUPUI standout Don Carlisle is still among the elite players in France, while Akeem Clark has starred both in the U.S. and overseas. Howard has coached five All-Americans and 14 All-League players.

Howard graduated from Louisville Ballard High School in 1989 after capturing a state championship as a junior in 1988 and finishing as state runner-up in 1987. Ballard was nationally ranked during each of his four seasons as Howard was named All-District and All-Region each season. He was a high school teammate of current New York Knicks star Allan Houston. Throughout his high school and collegiate career, Howard played with eight future NBA players.

The Howard family is rich in basketball tradition. Todd's father, Terry, also played at Louisville while his younger brother, Nathan, played at Murray State. In 1999, Howard was listed by The Hoop Scoop as "One of the Games Top 20 Assistant Coaches" and was recently listed by Indiana Basketball News as one of the state's top assistants.

Howard values the mentorship of Hall of Fame Coach Pete Newell and has served as a camp clinician at his annual 'Big Man Camp' on two occasions. He worked with some of the game's elite post players and learning from the Hall of Fame coach. In 2002, Howard assisted FIBA and USA Basketball in hosting the World Championships in Indianapolis.

The Louisville product prides himself in the development of perimeter players. IUPUI's success has been predicated by strong backcourts and few have been stronger than the 2007-08 trio of Hill, Patterson and Montgomery. In addition, Howard helped the long-term development of Crenshaw, David Barlow, Johnny Miller, Matt Burks, Rodney Thomas, Derek Williams, Taj Hawkins and Carlos Knox, among others.

"Howard has a relationship with the players that all coaches dream about," WISH-TV's Anthony Calhoun said. "The one thing that caught my attention is how much the players love playing for him."

Howard's responsibilities range from recruiting, advance scouting, game and practice preparation, player development, compliance liason, academic monitoring and scheduling.

He is married to the former Patti Martin, also from Louisville.

The couple have a son, Adam, who turns 12 on Jan. 10 and a daughter, Katie, who turns nine on March 5. The Howard family resides in Fishers, Ind..

►► Gaines Notes

One of four players from Louisville Eastern High School to play on the Kentucky All-Star Team last season and earn a Division I scholarship - Remy Abell (Indiana), Arman Marks (James Madison) and Kameron Woods (Butler)... second on the team with 74 offensive rebounds with nearly 55 percent of his boards coming off the offensive glass... scored 14 points (6-of-8 FG) in his IUPUI debut against Anderson off the bench, finishing three shy of the IUPUI freshman debut record held by Alex Young... made his first career start at Ball State (Nov. 23), finishing with eight points and three rebounds in 21 minutes work... his first ever double-digit rebounding game came against Texas Southern (Nov. 26)... recorded his first career double-double at Oakland (Jan. 7) with 20 points, 11 rebounds and five assists... Gaines' 26 starts are the most by any IUPUI freshman during the program's Division I era.
