IUPUI edges UMKC, 54-52, in Mid-Con quarterfinal

FORT WAYNE, IND. — The third time was a charm for No. 5 seed IUPUI on Sunday afternoon, as the Jaguars, who had been beaten twice earlier this season by No. 4 seed UMKC, were victorious in the second quarterfinal of the Mid-Continent Conference Men's Basketball Tournament. IUPUI, which is playing in its first Mid-Con Tournament, improved its record to 11-17 on the season and advanced to play top seed Valparaiso in the first semifinal game on Monday evening. UMKC closed its season with a 14-16 record.

"It's definitely been worth the wait," IUPUI head coach Ken Hunter said, referring to his team's two-year wait to play in the Mid-Con Tournament. "It's been a long seven years (since his arrival at IUPUI). We had one goal this year, to do well in the tournament because we waited so long to get here."

The game was a defensive struggle throughout. IUPUI led by as many as six in the first 10 minutes of the game, but UMKC fought back and took its first lead of the game at 14-13 on a lay-up by junior Michael Jackson (Overland Park, Kan.) with 10:09 left in the first half. UMKC then went on a small run of its own, and led by four points on three occasions. IUPUI evened the score by halftime, however, and the two teams entered their respective locker rooms tied at 26.

UMKC took its final lead of the game on a conventional three-point play by junior Matt Suther (Frankfort, Ky.) in the first minute of the second half. From there, IUPUI took control of the game. The Jaguars built a seven-point lead three times in the middle of the second half, and led by a 48-41 score with 8:10 left.

The UMKC defense shut down the Jaguars from there. UMKC outscored IUPUI by a 6-1 margin, and cut the deficit to 49-47 with 1:23 left. IUPUI senior Matt Hermes (Park Ridge, Ill.) hit a jumper with 25 seconds left that increased the Jaguar lead to four points, but Suther's two free throws closed the gap back to two points.

Junior Sylvester Allen (Cincinnati, Ohio) hit one-of-two free throws with 14 seconds left to give IUPUI a three-point lead, and UMKC was errant on a potential game-tying three attempt. Senior Charles Price (Indianapolis, Ind.) iced the game with two free throws with three seconds left, making a last-second three-pointer by UMKC freshman Michael Watson (Kansas City, Mo.) inconsequential.

IUPUI senior Don Carlisle (Indianapolis, Ind.), a first-team all-conference selection, earned his league-best 12th double-double with game highs of 16 points and 14 rebounds. Hermes netted 13 points off the bench while Allen and Price finished with 12 and 10, respectively. Junior Marcus Golson (Overland Park, Kan.) led UMKC with 13 points off the bench, while Suther finished with 12. Jackson, a first-team all-conference selection, was held to just six points, well below his team-best 15.7 scoring average.

GAME NOTES

- The IUPUI men's team followed the lead of its women's squad. Head coach Kris Simpson's Jaguars, the No. 5 seed in the Mid-Con Vera Bradley Women's Tournament, earned their first-ever Mid-Con Tourney win with a 58-53 win over Southern Utah yesterday.
- UMKC was one of the best teams in the country at taking care of the ball, but the Kangaroos turned the ball over 12 times (more than two more than their average) and dished out just six assists as a team.
- UMKC was outrebounded by a margin of 8.5 per game during the regular season (37.9-29.1), and were outrebounded by a 37-29 margin against the Jaguars.
- Seniors Don Carlisle and Matt Hermes each hit 6-of-9 shots from the floor for 66.7% accuracy, but the rest of the Jaguars made only 17.9% (5-28) of their shots.
